'Animated Winterlandscape'

-The Netherlandish painters of the 17th century; W. Bernt
-Illustr. Dict. of the 17th c. Flemish painters; J. De Maere

Jacques Fouquier was a Flemish landscapist, pupil and follower of Jan Brueghel the Elder and Joost de Momper. Groups of trees are disposed in the foreground in spacious landscapes with deep-blue background. The foreground is often animated by figures which recall Brueghel.
